FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GROSSE ILE ATTORNEY DEBORAH GREEN IS NEW REGION 1 ADMINISTRATOR FOR STATE COURT ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

LANSING, MI, June 12, 2003 – Deborah Green, an attorney and resident of Grosse Ile, Michigan, is the new Region 1 Administrator for the State Court Administrative Office (SCAO), the Michigan Supreme Court announced today.

SCAO is the administrative arm of the Michigan Supreme Court. The agency includes four regional administrators who report to State Court Administrator John D. Ferry, Jr. As Region 1 Administrator, Green will oversee court operations in an area that includes Genesee, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne counties. Regional offices provide management assistance to trial courts, monitor trial courts' workload management and administrative performance, and oversee trial courts' implementation of Supreme Court administrative policy.

Green was an attorney in private practice before becoming the prosecutor for the City of Allen Park. She became the court administrator for the 24th District Court in Allen Park in 1996. From 1998 until joining SCAO, Green served as court administrator for the 33rd District Court in Woodhaven.

Green's community activities include serving as president of the Grosse Ile Rotary. She has also served as president of the Grosse Ile Music Boosters and as a director of the Grosse Ile Presbyterian Carillon Bell Choir.

Green received her bachelor's degree in history from Pennsylvania State University and her law degree from Wayne State University School of Law. She is married to Alan Hickman and has four children.
